Were he our brother, nay, our kingdoms, he
As he is but our fathers brothers sonne,
Now by my Scepters awe, I make a vow
Such neighbour-nearenesse to our sacred
Should nothing priviledge him, nor partia
The unstooping firmenesse of our upright
He is our subject (Mowbray) so art thou
Free speech and fearelesse, I to thee allow

Three parts of that receipt I had for Calleis

Disburst I to his Highnesse souldiers;
The other part reserv'd I by consent,
For that my Soveraigne Liege was in my debt,
Upon remainder of a deare account,
Since last I went to France to fetch his Queene:
Now swallow downe that Lye. For Glosters death
(End of 4th. side)
I slew him not; but to mine own disgrace
Neglected my sworne duty in that case:
For you my Noble Lord of Lancaster,
The honorable father to my foe,
Once I did lay an ambush for your life,
A trespasse that doth vex my grieved soule:
But ere I last receiv'd the Sacrament,
I did confesse it, and exactly begg'd
Your Graces pardon, and I hope I had it.
This is my fault: as for the rest appeald
